THREE MEN DROWN IN ATTEMPTING TO CROSS ON THIN ICE

Athabasca River Claims Three Victims, Homeowners Near Foothills

ONE LOST HIS LIFE IN ATTEMPTING RESCUE

Men Were Hampered When They Broke Through the Ice by Heavy Packs

The Athabasca river late on Saturday evening claimed three more victims in T. Rissard, L. Bario and C. Antonio, at a point near Foothills, and as yet, although many attempts have been made, the bodies have not been recovered.

The three men, it appears, were crossing the ice going on to their homesteads in the north. They had heavy packs strapped on their backs, and were almost over the river when Rissard & Bario, who were in the lead, went through the ice. Antonio, although he had the opportunity to escape, made a gallant attempt to rescue his two companions, which cost him his life. He unstrapped his pack, lying full length on the ice, crawled out to the hole, and succeeded in catching one of the men.

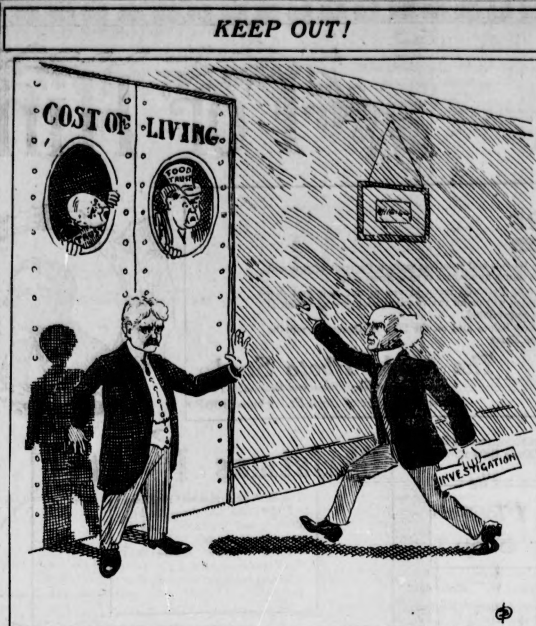

The weight of the two was, however, too great for the thin ice, and the plucky man was pulled in by the drowning companion.

Several people were on the bank watching the progress of the party over the ice, as before they started it was considered a risky undertaking, owing to the recent warm weather. The spectators hastened to get poles to attempt the rescue, but before they hurried the men the ice began to crack and they had to race off to save themselves.

Word was received at the headquarters of the Mounted Police here of the fatality yesterday, but beyond the fact that the men were homeowners nothing has been learned of them. Up till noon yesterday the bodies had not been recovered, although many attempts had been made to do so.

St. Paul Ministers Object to Sentence

Prince Albert Judge Is Criticized for Sentencing 13-Year-Old Girl Murderer

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 8.—Aroused over the extreme sentence imposed on Kathleen (sic) 13-year-old girl, Judge Brown at Prince Albert, Sask., Saturday, pastors of St. Paul churches may call a protest meeting. "I don't believe the judge who sentenced that child was ever a father," said Rev. J. G. Beaman, of the First Baptist church, last night. "I have all the respect in the world for the enforcement of the law, and think the laws of Canada are in many respects much ahead of those of the United States, but such a sentence is wicked," the pastor declared.

"I have more respect for the whipping post in Delaware than for such action as was taken in Prince Albert," Rev. Mr. Beaman said that the question probably would be discussed at the ministers' meetings this week and sermons preached on the subject Sunday.

When such men as Dummies are liberated from the Minnesota state prison, I think we have no right to protest," said Rev. H. N. Wilson, of Central Presbyterian church. "Most sentences imposed by the courts are none too severe."

This young girl was sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary for murdering her 13-year-old playmate by beating her with a spade at Walk, Sask., last June.

British Army Must Not Become Involved In The Home Rule Fight He Says

Lord Derby Emphatically Disavows
Urges Mutiny on Part of Army if Home Rule Is Forced on Ireland

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Punch this week sets off in characteristic fashion the humorous anomalies of the Unionist situation.

A hapless German visiting London is pictured gazing with astonishment at a bill board on which are displayed posters announcing the existence of the "Army for Ulster," the "Irish Nationalist army," "The militant suffragette army" and various other armed forces that are being levied in these islands.

"Mein Gott," exclaims the German. "All these armies, and Germany has only one."

Police Cope With Militants.

A good deal of enthusiastic exaggeration must be allowed for in the published accounts of the recruiting of these several armies, the frills and other propensities for the fray.

Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest at Plymouth showed that the police were fully competent to deal at least with one section of the suffragette army and the fact that there has been no collision with Sylvia Pankhurst's special corps of Elder Tird touches indicates that Scotland Yard has taken the measure of another section. As a matter of fact London has never taken the alarm of the suffragette army seriously.

In regard to the possibilities of armed resistance to home rule by Ulster the case is different. It has always been an element of disquiet, more or less implicitly expressed, in Ulster's threats of armed resistance being carried out, but at the same time there has always been a fear of the necessary retaliation led by Sir Edward Carson might have deplorable results.

Unionists Retreating.

Premier Asquith's warning last week, however, had a marked effect, and the Unionist leaders to whom he referred particularly are now hurriedly retreating from the ground they took up.

"The doctrine that soldiers and police officers or men," said Mr. Asquith, "are to discriminate at will between their orders is undermining to a government. We have to doubt as to the duty and power of the state to enforce obedience to the law."

The Earl of Derby was the first Unionist to call a halt to the extreme line of his party. Speaking on Monday he asserted that Mr. Asquith was "the royal assent to home rule, right and said that there must be an attempt to drag in the army to overthrow parliament."

Mr. Edward Carson, curiously enough, was the next to recede from the position previously occupied.

Even Carson Recedes.

"It is a foul lie," he remarked, "to say that the Ulster Unionists are trying to tamper with the British army. It would be a bad day for the country if the army under any circumstances were to refuse to obey lawful orders. Nobody would blame the army for shooting up Ulstermen."

In order to understand this new development it must be remembered what position Lord Derby holds in Irish politics. He is a great landlord, a more than usually able representative, a peer and a good business man, and is looked upon as the embodiment of that sound common sense which made the late Duke of Devonshire who possessed abilities as far lower order than Lord Derby's power in the councils of the nation. It is significant that Lord Derby, who a year or two ago, acted a hard reform policy and recently blocked the Unionist plan for demanding the re-formation of the army against the government.

Duty of a Soldier.

Lord Salisbury followed the other's lead saying that he "would never agree at the time of this crisis or any other to the suggestion that it could be the duty of the army to refuse to obey orders. The duty of a soldier, were he officer or private, was obedience to the lawful command."

To students of English politics it is interesting to mark this new development. It not only means a reappraisal of the political situation as perceived with home rule and Ulster's opposition, it also means that a man has arisen who is determined to rid the Unionist party of the farces under which it has been staggering for years.

Garvin Ben Unimposed.

In the latter days of Arthur Balfour's leadership, the power behind the throne was J. L. Garvin, a journalist of engaging personality. From his study at Hampstead and his editorial chair in Fleet Street Mr. Garvin practically dictated the Unionist policy. Balfour lay in his bed as wax in his hands.

What Garvin said in the Pall Mall Gazette and the Observer one day, the Unionist leaders echoed in their speeches the next. He pulled the strings while the puppets danced. Last Sunday the "reformer" pulled the strings of rebellion to the misanthropist of the Unionist party.

Never, never will it be," wrote Gar-

INTIMIDATION CONTAINED IN AMBASSADOR'S SPEECH

London Standard Declares Such Policy Would Excite Widespread Resentment

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Ambassador Page's speech at the Savoy club on Saturday has excited much comment here; it is regarded as a formal announcement of the extension of the scope of the Monroe doctrine to industrial concessions to foreigners.

The London Standard gives great prominence to the speech and also declares an editorially thereon, saying: "If this elaboration of the Monroe doctrine is a device by which foreign financial and commercial enterprises in Central America and South American countries may be checked, it will hardly promote that international good-will which President Wilson and W. J. Bryan have so often advocated with unqualified vehemence."

"A more fruitful source of endless discussion between the United States and other countries with legitimate commercial aspirations in Central and South America can hardly be imagined."

"The latest development of the American policy as announced does not harmonize with the principle of equalization of countries in which there is a field for business enterprises."

"The attempt to curtail legitimate British enterprise in Central and South American countries, which the ambassador's statement of policy appears to indicate, would inevitably excite just resentment in this country."

At the conclusion of the paragraph in which he spoke of "the King's troops" being ordered into the loyal north of Ireland to subjugate the most devoted of the King's subjects to a vote they hate, and to "crown a community whose whole a-bolition in the green flag."

In various issues of the Pall Mall Gazette, he urged action which undoubtedly suggested the refusal of the British army to the British army to "coerce" Ulster. It was at this critical moment that Lord Derby slipped into the arena.

"We're no police in the army," he said, "and, right or wrong, we're not to do what we're told."

Thus the issue lies between the Earl and the Journalist.

17 PER CENT OF NEW LOAN IS SUBSCRIBED

New Canadian Loan for $300,000. 000 Is Coldly Received in London

London, Dec. 8.—Only seventeen per cent. of the new Dominion of Canada loan, of 3,000,000 pounds four per cent. loan at 95, has been taken up by public subscription, eighty-three per cent. being left with the underwriters. Rumors of a poor public response have been rife since the lists closed.
The previous government loan in October was for 2,000,000 pounds, forty-three per cent. being taken up by the public and fifty-seven per cent. left with the underwriters. When the loan was floated, it immediately went to 104 premium, but the announcement of the new loan made it recede to 1-2 discount. This is the price today.
Other Canadian issues are correspondingly weak. No colonial government loan has been fully subscribed for the last eighteen months, and seeing that a lot of new loans are talked about, Canada perhaps may well get in first with her most recent application.
Despite the ill success of the Dominion of Canada loan, Montreal and Saskatoon recent receipts are both at 1-2 premium today and Toronto at 1-2 discount.

Conference Sat 20 Hours Failed To Settle Strike

Employees' Demand That All The Dublin Strikers Be Reinstated Turned Down

Dublin, Dec. 7.—The attempt to reach a settlement of the Dublin strike, which has been in progress for fifteen weeks, has failed. A conference of employers and employees, assisted by English labor leaders, sat for twenty hours, thrashing out every point, but broke down today on the workers' demand for complete reinstatement of the strikers. This the executive of the employers would not concede.
The result of the conference is a great surprise and disappointment, as the prolonged discussion gave hope that the disastrous strike, which has caused the eviction of hundreds from their homes, was nearing an end. The employers had offered to reinstate eight per cent. of the strikers.

Italian Deputies Fight Fuel.
Rome, Dec. 8.—Deputy Giambattista, Liberal, was disabled today by a wound in the forearm inflicted by Deputy Giuseppe De Felice Di Tiro, a Socialist, after the two had fought 23 bouts in a rapid duel. The quarrel arose over an incident in the chamber of deputies.

Winning Dec. 8.—The official declaration of the returning officer in the Kildonan-St. Andrew's election gave H. B. Dr. Montague a majority of 415 votes in a total of 2,229 votes cast.

HUDSON BAY CO.'S CARNIVAL OPEN

Unique Department Is Inaugurated at 'The Bay' Monday

(From Evening Edition.)
A new departure in merchandising was inaugurated in Edmonton yesterday at the Hudson's Bay Co.'s stores, when their carnivals, or shopping festival, was opened on the fourth floor. Similar festivals have been held by large mercantile firms in the European continent, but this is the first known to be held on this side of the Atlantic. The purpose of the 'carnivals' is to display in one department as large a range as possible of merchandise suitable for giving for the benefit of those who do not care to make expensive purchases, yet who desire to remember their friends in the customary manner at the season of the year.
The display is attractively arranged in numerous small departments and booths, to attract the attention of all materialities and each booth is presided over by a young lady dressed in the costume of the country which she is supposed to represent, and speaking the language of that particular nationality. The list includes Russian, Austrian, Portuguese, Italian, French, German, Irish, Scotch, English and many others. An orchestra is in attendance each day from 11 o'clock until the store closes, and during this time continue their program solely to the national anthems of all countries. The decorations of the room also bear out the cosmopolitan idea, and consist of flags and decorations ranging from the Indian's canoe to the Frenchman's chateau, illuminated by tiny electric bulbs. The range of merchandise offered is a surprisingly large one, gathered from every department of the store and taken from reserve stocks, and all marked at special prices for this department, which will remain open until Christmas.

On the same floor, adjoining the carnival, are the rooms to be occupied by 'The Bay's' new restaurant and cafeteria, which will be opened on Monday next. This floor also contains the ladies' rest room and also a smoking room for gentlemen, where are to be found newspapers, magazines and writing material for the convenience of the store's patrons.

THREE MILES YET TO GO THROUGH CANAL

Alex. Harwarth Has Not Yet Completed Navigation of Basingstoke Canal

London, Dec. 8.—Alex. Harwarth, who started a fortnight ago today in an endeavor to navigate the Basingstoke Canal, in order to assert the claim of his family to the navigation rights of that waterway which would be imperiled if a large does not pass through the canal at least once in five years, had a very difficult time in carrying out his enterprise.
He has not completed it, but hopes to do so tomorrow. The canal, which is 27 miles long and rises 135 feet by 23 locks in 15 miles, was dug in 1797, but fell into disuse after the railway began operation in 1838. Harwarth's first, having overcome the task of propelling his barge for three-quarters of a mile through a tunnel filled with ice, in which there was no light and through which a barge had to be sent by the crew by using their backs and forcing the boat along by pushing with their feet against the walls, ran into a snag in the last section of three miles, which he found absolutely dry and in which his barge stranded, but not to be daunted, he and his men paddled the canal section, and began the work of flooding it on Saturday night, as a result of which they hope that there will be tomorrow enough water to enable the barge to float and complete its journey.

NORMAL PRICES FOR FOOD
Rebel General Orders Merchants at Juarez and Chihuahua to Sell at Proper Prices.

Juarez, Dec. 8.—As a means of placing the rebel territory on a normal basis, General Francisco Villa today issued an order that all foodstuffs should be sold at prices usually obtained in times of peace.
Stores in Chihuahua and other rebel cities are required to sell goods at prices named by Villa. The rebel leader said that if merchants attempted to ask higher prices, on account of the war, he would confiscate their property.

The Canadian Northern announces a change in the date of departure of their special train to leave Edmonton on December 10 instead of the 11th, as previously announced, to connect with the Royal George, which sails from Seattle on the 22nd, for Bristol and London.

The death of Agnes Cook, daughter of John Cook, occurred yesterday at the family residence, 144 Isabella street. The funeral takes place on Wednesday afternoon at the family residence. The father of the deceased was on the day of his daughter's death in the very thick of his suffering, so that the event was particularly sad.

TO APPEAR TUESDAY.
 The alleged gamblers rounded up by the police on Saturday night from the three clubs in the city, will appear before Magistrate Mann in the police court Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. INJUNCTION REFUSED.
 Justice Walsh in the supreme court this morning announced that he would dismiss the motion brought by U. H. O'Connor for U. S. Baister and D. H. McPhee seeking for an injunction restraining the city from proceedings with the work remaining the streets and renumbering the houses. He stated that in his opinion the city was legally entitled to take the action it did, and he did not see that it would inconvenience the parties who sought the injunction.

City Solicitor Down and C. M. Barker represented the defence.

DEATH OF THOMAS R. REID.
 The death occurred yesterday at his residence, 625 Byrdville avenue, of Thomas R. Reid, aged 45 years. Mr. Reid was an old timer of the city, very well known and greatly respected. TEAM RAN AWAY.
 Some excitement was caused at the corner of Elizabeth street and Mainway avenue this morning, when a team of horses attached to a two-seated rig dashed wildly round the corner and upset the occupants, tumbling over, on to the pavement, and fell themselves. Fortunately, no one was hurt, and little damage was done to the horses or rig. The vehicle was being used in the interests of Mr. McNamara in the election, and the driver was taking the people to the polls. One of the strangers, bearing the words "Vote for McNamara," became loose and flapped in the horses' faces, frightening them.

FIRE IN NORTH EDMONTON.
 A fire in the annex of the North Edmonton hotel which broke out at about 5:30 this morning resulted in damage to close of $10,000. All the loss is covered by insurance. The blaze raged for over two hours, and for a long time it looked as if it was going to be a very serious one as the Grey restaurant, situated next to the building, also caught fire, and it was only hard work on the part of the fire brigade which prevented its complete destruction.

A man named Bourcier noticed smoke issuing from the building and rang in the alarm which was responded to by Nos. 1 and 2 stations. It took two hours to extinguish the flames, the annex to the hotel being completely gutted. Fortunately there was no one occupying the building at the time. How the fire originated is a mystery; for there had been no one in the building, according to T. M. Le Riviere, the lease, for several days.

Customers using our new Transfers are delighted, and each day shows an enormous increase. Why? The following reasons will explain: When you make your purchases in the different departments with a Transfer, you only make one payment when finished, which is accommodating to customers wishing to pay by cheque and when paying cash it avoids the unnecessary handling of so much small change in each department.

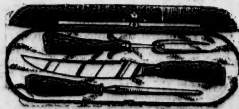

If you intend taking the goods with you it eliminates the possibility of loss, which is very easy when carrying so many different packages.

If you are having your purchases sent, then you are positively certain of receiving them all together with one delivery, seeing that all your merchandise is enclosed in one parcel.

There is absolutely no waiting. Save time—use a Transfer.
